

A FILM BY ADAM DALLAS BARNES

BARNSEY MEDIA | MIRA PRODUCTIONS | AXIS PRESS

BUM

A discarded mirror brings back childhood memories for an older man living on the streets. As memories of his mother resurface, he struggles to tell the past from the present.

DIRECTED BY
Adam Dallas Barnes

FESTIVAL SEASON
2026/2027

CAST
Harwood Gordon
Bril Landa
Peter Barcus

ABOUT THE FILM

A raw and intimate cinematic experience exploring homelessness, mental illness, and the delicate relationship between memory and perception. As an elderly man tries to make sense of his past, the film draws us into his point of view and asks us to reconsider how we see him.

Is it memory or madness?

FESTIVAL RECOGNITION

5 WINS | 3 NOMINATIONS

Las Vegas International Film & Screenwriting Festival

Best Feature Film · Drama Feature

Best Director · Best Editing · Best Actor

Also nominated for Best Cinematography, Best Actress, and Best Hair and Makeup.

SELECTED CAST & CREW

Bum	Harwood Gordon
Mother	Brit Landa
Young	Peter Rocco Barcus
Writer / Director	Adam Dallas Barnes
Producers	Pete & Mary Miragliotta
Production	Barnsey Media	Mira Productions

Follow BUM on Instagram (@bum.movie) and Facebook for festival updates, screening dates, and release news. For more information, visit bumfilm.com

Adam Dallas Barnes | Adamdallasair@gmail.com